Photographer Mike Schreiber has worked with some of hip hop's biggest names, capturing them for all the world to see. His humanistic approach to life and work is reflected in these mostly black and white photographs. His photos capture the true essence of hip hop cultures and perspectives with an end result that is refined yet undeniably honest in its raw and gritty tone. Because Schreiber's personal approach is so palpable in the photographs, True Hip Hop also features Schreiber's stories about these shoots, revealing everything from anecdotes about the artists to technical details and trade secrets.
